

The Wizard of OZ

Dorothy Gale lived in the midst of the great Kansas prairies with her Uncle Henry, who was a farmer, and her Aunt Em, who was a farmer's wife. Their house was small, for lumber to build it had to be carried by wagon many miles. There were four walls, a floor, and a roof, which made one room. One day after returning from the outhouse, Aunt Em forgot to wash her hands, which caused a nasty bacterial infection to spread among the whole family, including the little dog, Toto. In addition to severe stomach cramps and diarrhea, Dorothy started to have some really strange dreams.

This convenient reading material is brought you by L .Frank Baum and the Child Care Health Consultation Program who remind you to

Please Wash Your Hands With Soap and Water